"Do not suppose that I wish to deceive women into the idea that whenever they pass they will tread upon herbs of sweet scent, and that the rough ground will be made smooth for them by depth of roses! So surely as they believe that they will have, instead, to walk on bitter herbs and thorns. The path of a good woman is indeed strewn with flowers, but they rise behind her feet, not before them."—RUSKIN.

SARAH (RIGHTER) MAJOR, was born in Germantown now Philadelphia, Pa., August 29, 1808 and died, at Greenfield, Ohio, September, 1884. When young, she was, as she often said with sorrow of herself, "a vain, giddy, proud young girl;" but at the age of eighteen she was converted under the preaching of Harriet Livermore, and as she was her first convert there, she took special pride in her and called her her child.

After her conversion she felt called upon to bear testimoney before the world. She struggled with this conviction night and day for a long time, agonizing while others slept, until flesh surrendered and she entered upon her work in such channels as were open to her, which were but few—nearly sixty years ago as it was. One opposition which she met, must have been a heavy cross to her at times and that was the opposition of brethren who said that sisters "should keep silent;" nor was this confined to her youthful days, for I have heard of churches being closed against her within the last ten years if I mistake not. She was never ordained or set apart to the ministry, but the little church of Fall Creek, Highland county, Ohio, with which she has been connected for the last thirty-five years, accepted her as a speaker and gladly received her ministration of the word while life and health permitted her to serve.

The cross above alluded to, may have been a source of annoyance to her in her younger days but during my acquaintance with her I never heard her complain, she submitted quietly to the decisions of the elders.

As to her power as a speaker, I have been told that people would follow her from one appointment to another to the distance of twenty miles, and I know that I never heard a speaker who could more effectually touch the hearts of her hearers than could sister Major; but she was no revivalist, protracted meetings were not in favor among the German Baptist churches when she was in her prime, and failing health and family cares would not permit it afterward.

Sarah Righter was married to Thomas Major, March 10, 1842, and she leaves two sons and a daughter to sympathize with their afflicted father in his bereavement. About two years after her marriage she went with her husband to Scioto county, Ohio, where they remained about four years when they moved to Highland county, Ohio, where they have resided since. Of course the readers of this paper would be pleased to know her position with reference to the present church trouble, but of this I can speak only from hear-say. She was with the church at Lexington, Highland county, Ohio, when the "dividing committee" visited it. She labored with the committee, pleading for charity with tears. When the question "Will you go with the church?" was put, she refused to answer at first, protesting against the form of the question; but, on being pressed she said, "Of course, I wish to remain with the old church." It almost broke her heart to see the church in which she had been laboring for thirty-five years divided, when the decisions of annual meeting had never been their standard; and a brother told me that she said afterwards that the Gospel was all that was necessary as a rule of faith and practice: So far as I know, I would say that she occupied a position very similar to that of Elder Isaac Price.

But now she has gone to her reward, she rests in peace while the "everlasting arms" enfold her form, and the flowers now blooming on the thorny path she trod may be strewn upon her grave, or given with her benediction to some of her beloved poor.

In Memorium.

Brother W. W. Cober, of the Berlin congregation, departed this life September 24th, 1884, after a brief illness of one week, with Typhoid fever. Brother Cober was aged 19 years, 4 months and 19 days. He was a member of the church for a little over two years, and took an active part in church work. He was our leader in singing school, and took an active part in Sunday school work. We will miss him at his accustomed place in the Berlin church, and we mourn his deep felt loss. A life that promised great usefulness was thus early cut off, and we can only submit to the rulings of an all-wise providence who always doeth all things well.

A large congregation assembled upon the occasion of his funeral to pay their last respects to the dead and sympathize with the mourning friends. The occasion was improved by the writer from Psalms 50: 15.

Sister Nininger's Proposition.

I am being asked by some of the little girls of my church at home, who donated a dime each last June when I presented to them the above named enterprise, and as some contributed from Illinois, Indiana, Rockingham county, Va., and West Virginia as well, it may be a question in the minds of many, What has become of the enterprise? For we promised to have a list of the doner's names printed in the EVANGELIST, an explanation, therefore, from me seems to be necessary. You will remember that I told you all, that I was only assisting sister Nininger to get names and donations, who kindly asked me to do so, as she could not have as good an opportunity as I would have. I think I obtained about one hundred and fifty names, and a donation of ten cents for each name for her. So that when I gave her the money and names I think she had something over sixteen dollars in all. I left there about the first of August, and don't know what has been done since. Of course sister Nininger will at the proper time make a report through the paper according to promise in her proposition. She is cumbered a great deal with her domestic affairs, and probably can't give the matter the immediate attention she would like. I hope this explanation will relieve me, and her satisfactory to all, Respectfully,

JAMES A. RIDENOUR.

Dayton News Items.

Brother A. L. Garber, of Bellville, Ohio, preached in the Brethren church in this city Sunday morning and evening, and Wednesday and Thursday evening of this week. The sermons were listened to with marked attention, and the cause in the city received a new impetus, our hearts being filled with peace and joy in the Holy Ghost. The good work is progressing slowly and surely.

"The law of the Lord is perfect, converting the soul."

To-morrow evening and Sunday morning brother Garber has appointments at Alpha, in Greene county, about nine miles east of the city.

There is a membership of about thirty Brethren in the vicinity of Alpha and Zimmerman, who are beloved in the Father's sight in that they are not ashamed of Jesus and his word in this adulterous and sinful generation. Temporally they have been deprived of their rightful place of worship, but "by patient continuance in well-doing" they will, in the Lord's own appointed time, have a house in which to worship, "whose builder and maker is God, eternal in the heavens."

Social Purity.

While this subject is upon the tapis in the current news of the day, a few sentences regarding it may not be out of place in these columns. Purity of mind, body and soul is required of every human being.

Nor is purity in social life less requisite for meeting the requirements of God's law, for the maintenance of social order, for the refining of man's grosser nature and for the stability both of the family and of the state. He who sins against social purity, is guilty of that which rots the foundations of civil governments and would turn homes into beastly brothels. Purity in this aspect is the cornerstone not only of the family but of the state, and he who would defend the opposite, must either err in judgement or have his whole surrounding medium obfuscated by his sensuality. Such men are the cuttle-fish of society; men who having done evil themselves, eject their own darkened fluid so copiously around them that they can see none but their own "kith and kin," and are so debased by their continuance in evil doing that they "glory in in their shame." They think themselves rich in their treasury of darknes, are defiant in their self constituted surroundings and regard the outside world as no better than themselves. Human nature is bad enough, but not so bad as their jaundiced eyes would represent it who would say of each man and woman, "Thou also art become like one of us." These, no matter to what polititical party, social set, or polygamic segregation they belong, should be ostracized from every respectable and reponsible position in a Christian land.—Pulpit Treasury.

AN ONLY DAUGHTER CURED OF CONSUMPTION.

When death was hourly expected, all remedies having failed, and Dr. H. James was experimenting with the many herbs of Calcutta he accidently made a preparation which cured his only child of Consumption. His child is now in this country, and enjoying the best of health. He has proved to the world that Consumption can be positively and permanently cured. The Doctor now gives this receipt free, only asking two 2-cent stamps to pay expenses. This herb also cures Night Sweats, Nausea at the Stomach, and will break up a fresh cold in twenty-four hours. Address Craddock and Co, 1032 Race St. Philadelphia, naming this paper.

I. P. Dukehart,

Supt. of B. & O. R. R. Co.'s Hotels, (Conductor on the Balt. & Ohio Railroad for 28 years, and previously a Druggist) writes: "Cumberland, Md., Dec. 17, 1881; I have used but one bottle of Peruna between myself and son. He had Diphtheretic Sore Throat, and is now well. As for myself it has entirely relieved the dullness in my head, which has been of long standing—the result of Chronic Malaria. I never took anything in my life that gave me such satisfaction. My wife is now taking it also." Ask your Druggist for the "Ills of Life," and how to cure them—a book.

PE-RU-NA

Is a new remedy, originally compounded and introduced to the medical profession and then to the public at large, by S. B. Hartman, M. D. He has prescribed it to over 40,000 patients with the most gratifying results.

Its effect upon the system is entirely unlike that of any other remedy, and is the only medicine needed in almost every disease to which flesh is heir. In all it has no equal.

PERUNA is composed of purely vegetable ingredients, each one, according to medical authors, a great remedy in itself.

Dr. Hartman has succeeded in extracting and combining the active principles of these ingredients into one simple compound, which perfectly coincides with the Vis Medicatrix Naturæ in every disease, and a cure necessarily follows. There is not an organ it will not reach, nor a disease it will not cure.

Ask your druggist for Dr. Hartman's pamphlet on the "Ills of Life." Dr. S. B. Hartman & Co., Columbus, Ohio, U. S. A.
